

Cyrus S. Avery Papers
Oklahoma State University – Tulsa Library
Special Collections and Archives Department

List of Maps pertaining to Route 66 in the Cyrus S. Avery Papers

The Federal Aid Highway System of the United States November 1, 1923
Department of Agriculture, Henry Cal Wallace, Secretary
Bureau of Public Roads, Thomas H. MacDonald, Chief 41/12 inches wide and 26 inches high Roads shown here indicate the Routes Approved by the Secretary of Agriculture in accordance with the Act of November 9, 1921

The Federal Aid Highway System - Nebraska
System as approved to March 1, 1924
22 inches high, 21 ¼ inches wide no other identification was found on the face or back of the map

Federal Aid Highway System of the United States with Interstate Highways selected and numbered by Joint Board on Highways October 31, 1925
22 inches high, 21 ¼ inches wide
Department of Agriculture William M. Jardine, Secretary
Bureau of Public Roads Thomas H. MacDonald, Chief
2 copies

United States System of Highways adopted for Uniform Marking by the Association of State Highway Officials November 11, 1926
19 ½ inches high and 30 inches wide
Department of Agriculture, William M. Jardine, Secretary
Bureau of Public Roads, Thomas H. MacDonald, Chief
Interstate highways indicated in red ink

United States System of Highways adopted for Uniform Marking by the Association of State Highway Officials November 11, 1926
19 ½ inches high and 30 inches wide
Department of Agriculture William M. Jardine, Secretary
Bureau of Public Roads, Thomas H. MacDonald, Chief
Interstate highways indicated in red ink

Please note: This map is the exact same map as the one above except it has some interstate highways marked in a different way. Certain highways are marked with bold black ink surrounding the red lines with highway numbers circled in bold black ink and the highway numbers in red ink. The highways marked this manner are as follows: North to South: Highways 73, 75, 77, and 81; East to West: Highways 54, 66, and 70.

Oklahoma State Highway System 1926
Cyrus S. Avery, Tulsa Okla. (printed on back) 25 ½ inches wide and 19 ¼ inches high
Blue ink on beige paper